The Prettiest Woman.

It is related of the Grand Duke Constantine of Russia that upon one occasion at a ball at the Tuileries, in the balmy days of the second empire, the Empress Eugenie asked him which woman in the great assemblage seemed to him the most beautiful. His answer was, perhaps, as disappointing to the fair Empress as it was complimentary to his wife. "Your majesty," said he, "must excuse me. I am only a barbarian, a Cossack. I only know one handsome woman; she is my wife."

Style In Bode.

From the Standard-News
A man made a demonstration against Professor Howard last evening with a huge knife, when the colored orator grabbed a hatchet, and went for him, laying him out in style.

Fire in Red Bluff.

OUR CERTIFIED CIRCULATION.

The Reno Gazette has an extensive circulation in the State of Nevada and in other States and Territories.
 JAMES H. KINKADEE
 Sworn to before me by MARK PARISH, this 8th day of July, 1880, Clerk of Wash. Co. County.

SCHROEDER HELD TO ANSWER.

Judge Yule of Oakland has very properly held Schroeder to answer, without bail, for the murder of Dr. Lefevre. Schroeder had a wretched wife. He learned of her criminal intimacy with Lefevre six weeks before the shooting. There was nothing to show that the dead man was particularly to blame. He was simply made the scapegoat of Mrs. Schroeder's infidelity. There are few men who would not have availed themselves of the same opportunity. Pure women are not exceptional, but where there is a pure man!

Schroeder found out his wife's guilt, forgave her, and continued to live with her. Then, weeks afterwards, like a fool, he kills her paramour, thus publishing to the world his own and his wife's disgrace. Schroeder deserves punishment, if only for acting like an idiot.

Schroeder's testimony shows that he has queer notions of what is proper behavior in a married woman, and his own acts show that his ideas of what is becoming in a husband are equally peculiar. He made before the court the ridiculous assertion that no man could call upon a married lady at her house except from an improper motive! A husband with such severe notions of propriety should hardly consent to live with an adulterous wife.

A VALUABLE PRECEDENT.

When persons are obliged to go without food for an indefinite period, as in case of shipwreck, the fear of speedy death from starvation causes them to soon lose hope and courage, and death is greatly hastened by their despair. The knowledge that existence may be maintained for thirty or forty days without food might fortify a man to endure the pangs of hunger for a much longer time than he could under the general impression that life cannot be sustained more than a week without food. Dr. Tanner's longfast has had at least this benefit. It has demonstrated the possibility of living five or six weeks without food. Hereafter, when a man is exposed to starvation, let him think of Tanner and persist in living.

LOOK TO REDUCTIONS.

The State Convention meets next week. We earnestly recommend to the consideration of the Committee on Platform the question of reduction of State expenses. We are paying immense salaries, for every office, from the Governor down. Not half the States in the Union pay $6,000 a year. The party should pledge itself in the platform to cut the salary of Governor and Lieutenant-Governor down one-half, and other officers accordingly. The offices of Governor's Secretary, Deputy Controller, and Deputy Treasurer should be abolished. These things are absolutely necessary, and the party that does it the quickest is the one for the people.

A REASONABLE SUGGESTION.

We call the attention of our farthest readers to a suggestion made by Mr. Alt and others for a combined onslaught to be made on the grasshoppers. It looks practicable, and although many hoppers might escape, yet vast numbers would be destroyed if the plans described in another column are carried out. We have heard several who have tried it say that plowing up the nests destroyed the eggs, and it seems that turning stock in on them would be equally effective. We would be glad to be informed of the result of any experiment.

LOOKS LIKE A FRAUD.

Such items as this are cropping out in the Eastern papers:
 "The Rising Sun Mining Company of Calif. was sold this other day for $750,000."
 "The Rising Sun Mining Company has declared its first dividend amounting to $3,750."

This mine was recently sold for $23,000, and it looks as if the purchasers were working up a sale of its stock. It is located a couple of miles north of Colfax, California. It has a ten-stamp mill and steam hoisting works and by economy can be made to pay a small profit. The vein is very narrow and assays $18 a ton at the best places. It is 18 inches wide where it is richest, but at the bottom on the 900 level it is 3 feet wide, and will not assay much over a dollar a ton. It yielded $7,500 in June and ran 48 men. If there was a dividend it must have been out of somebody's pocket. The pay streak extends 600 feet east and west.

From Washington comes an amusing story about William Peter Sprague, an Ohio member of Congress who served in the Forty-second and Forty-third Congress, voted against the salary grab, and at the time wrote a letter scolding to touch the unclean thing. Subsequently his constituents advised him to give $1,000 of the grab to each of the five most prominent agricultural societies in the state. This he declined to do, because there was horse racing attached to such societies, and he did not care to encourage such wickedness. Thinking the matter forgotten, Sprague, on the 24th of June last, drew the money from the Treasury Department in five drafts, and now has it in his possession.

According to the Argonaut, an Oakland lady, in relation to the Schroeder scandal, thus wrote to her husband: "Do, please, be careful how you even look at a woman. They are such nasty, deceitful wretches, they construe a man's complimentary speeches into a declaration of love; and then, if they get snubbed a little, they run to their husbands, and beg for murder."

A decision in the U. S. Circuit Court at Carson settles the case of the Wells-Fargo Mining Co. vs. the new Wells-Fargo Mining Co., establishing the fact that the old company has no mine. The old company have been selling stock and levying assessments for two years without owning any property.

A New York dispatch says that Judge Hilton and Mrs. A. T. Stewart have lately been engaged in perfecting arrangements for the endowment of the largest and most complete college in America, with a fund of between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. The college is to be located at Garden City, where the remains of the late millionaire were to have reposed.

Little hope of ever seeing the Jeanette is entertained. The Jeanette was the steamer fitted out for polar exploration by the New York Herald. She left San Francisco last summer, and is supposed to have been lost with all on board, in the far frozen regions of the North. Search for her has so far proved unsuccessful.

The remarkable thing about Alex. J. Mayers' sending a check for $10,000 to the Bank of North America the other day is this: He went through bankruptcy in 1887 and promised to pay all his debts as soon as he was able, and this is the second $10,000 check that he has sent to the bank in fulfillment of the voluntary obligation.

In the afternoon. In the evening it was packed to its full capacity. All the extra seats carried with the show for occasions when there is a grand rush were brought into use, and every foot of space was occupied. At no other time has there been such a turn out in this city.

The State elections in Alabama on Monday resulted in a majority of about 50,000 for the Democrats. The Democrats also gained a victory in Kentucky on the same day. In Milton, Kentucky, Boonville Smith, a negro, was knocked down, beaten and fatally stabbed.

The latest invention is a fruit picker. It is pushed up into the tree and cuts off the fruit, which drops into a hose and descends to the ground uninjured. All that the machine needs to make it complete is an attachment to keep off the dog.

There are insects which have the power to give an electric shock, as can the gymnatus, or electric eel. The wheel bug of the East Indies is little, but it can knock a man down with its electrical battery.

Declaration of Independence. John Hancock left no children.

Three Republican newspapers in Carson manage to give nearly all the campaign lies on that side. The Democrats ought to be perfectly satisfied.

Dr. Sternberg of Denver, Colorado, makes the business proposition to fast for forty days if somebody will pay him $3,000 for the time and trouble.

Now they are making leather from the stomachs of animals. There must be good leather in Dr. Tanner.

They say now that Dr. Tanner has all along been nourished by a liver pad.

THE BEST CIRCUS IN THE WORLD!

AN OVATION TO W. W. COLE, THE GREAT SHOWMAN.

IMMENSE AUDIENCES BOTH AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

A Glittering Street Pageant and a Grand Performance.

From the Quincy Herald, May 2d.

THE OVATION.
 The prediction made by the Herald that the citizens of Quincy and vicinity would give W. W. Cole, the founder, owner and manager of W. W. Cole's great shows, an ovation on the occasion of his visit, was fulfilled yesterday. It seemed, in both afternoon and evening, that all Quincy turned out to see the grand attractions and enjoy the treat prepared by the manager for his patrons. Notwithstanding the opposition, the circus pavilion, one of the largest in use, was filled.

THE PARADE.
 Mr. Cole promised a grand street pageant and he kept his word. The display was as fine as has ever been made here, and was complimented by the thousands who filled the streets on the line of march. The features of the parade were too numerous to mention in detail. Everything had a new look. The wagons, carriages, the trappings, banners, harness and costumes were bright, and the line was a glittering one. It is but just to say that Mr. Cole excels all other managers in the quantity and quality of his horses. Finer looking horses than those in his procession never passed through the streets of this city. The parade is all that was promised and even more.

UNDER THE CANVAS.
 The immense pavilions for the museum, menagerie, and circus were located at Fourteenth and Broadway, and looked like a city of tents. The visitor upon passing the grand entrance was struck with the system and order that prevailed everywhere, as well as the bright, clean and attractive appearance of everything in the establishment. One of Mr. Cole's specialties is that the show and everything about it shall at all times look attractive. All that met the eye seemed to be brand new.

THE MENAGERIE.
 No show in the country possesses a finer collection of rare and valuable animals than Mr. Cole's, and no menagerie that ever visited the city of Quincy exhibited animals in such fine condition. Everything on the bills and in the advertisements was found in this department. The pair of sea elephants, the only ones ever captured, and the only ones known to exist, were a great curiosity and worth the price of admission. In this department were also found those marvelous, Capt. and Mrs. Bates, the tallest people on the globe, and an attraction possessed by no other show.

IN THE CIRCUS.
 In the circus pavilion the same neatness was observed. The vast tent when filled with people was a grand sight, a spectacle worth paying to see. The performance was what Mr. Cole had pledged the public it would be. All that was promised was done. We would like to mention the various acts in detail, but want of space confines us to the prominent features. The six performing stations are even better than represented; their feats are remarkable and are a good show by themselves. They are by far the best gained horses ever exhibited in Quincy. The leaps of the performing horse Humboldt were great and were met with enthusiastic applause. The bicycle act in mid air was done just as promised. It is wonderful and startling and may be set down as the most remarkable feat ever accomplished in mid air. The triple bar performance, the posturing act, the leaps, the riding, the performance of the Spanish bull, Uncle Henry Cooke's ponies and the fun made by the clowns, assailed in making a splendid and enjoyable entertainment.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.
 is one of Mr. Cole's specialties, and it is a great feature. It is a candle any other light ever seen in Quincy. The pavilion last night was made as bright as they are at midday. The light is said to be the best ever used, and alone is worth the admission.
 The performance passed off smoothly under the management of Tom McIntyre. There were no wails, no halts, everything went off regularly and systematically. Taken all in all Mr. Cole's shows this season far exceed those of previous years and are unsurpassed anywhere.
 This famous show will exhibit at Reno on Saturday, Aug. 7.

To The Masonic Fraternity.
 The Northwestern Masonic Aid Association of California has the honor to request that the U. S. P. It has now nearly 8,000 members. Gives $5.00 to the needy of distressed Masons. Has paid out about $100,000 in six years, to widows and orphans, and the annual cost of membership is but about one-fourth the expense of an ordinary insurance policy. There is no more certain, reliable or economical way of establishing an immediate estate, or providing for the future than is offered by the above legislation. For further information and circulars apply or send to my office on the east side of Virginia street, south of the railroad, Reno, Nev. Jos. DeBelle, Agent for Reno and vicinity.

Stop That Cough
 With a sample bottle of Kaiser's German Elixir. This is the most wonderful cough remedy ever introduced, being mild, yet positive in its action and soothing under all circumstances. Old and young may use it with perfect security. It is rich in the medicinal properties of tar, wild cherry and horehound. Ask your druggists, Messrs. Osburn & Shoe maker, or write to me. They will send you a sample bottle free of charge. The genuine bears the Prussian coat of arms and the facsimile signature of Dr. Kaiser on the wrapper and has his name blown in every 75 cent bottle. Samples 3 cent. Large size 100 cent.

A Card.
 To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, I would say: Take, early, early, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a physician in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Linn, Station D, New York City, may 2nd D&W
